5. KEY OBSERVATIONS & OPERATIONAL INSIGHTS

5.1 System Performance:

The KLAES Electronic Instrument Registration Module demonstrated robust performance, with zero data loss and 100% traceability of all captured instruments via unique TrackingIDs and QR verification codes.

5.2 Workflow Efficiency:

Average processing time from instrument submission to electronic registration reduced by approximately 65% compared to manual processes, attributable to automated validation, digital signatures, and integrated workflow routing.

5.3 Data Quality:

Implementation of mandatory metadata fields (File Number, Party Details, Property Location, Instrument Date) ensured >98% completeness of registered records, supporting reliable legal search and reporting functions.

5.4 Geographic Distribution:

Registrations were concentrated in high-growth LGAs (Ungogo, Kumbotso, Dawakin Tofa), reflecting ongoing urban expansion and infrastructure-led resettlement activities.

5.5 Module Integration:

Successful interoperability between the Deeds Module, Land Module, and Digital Archive enabled seamless file commissioning, instrument registration, and archival within a single enterprise environment.

6. CHALLENGES & MITIGATION

S/N	Challenge	Impact	Mitigation Strategy
1	High volume of OP-Resettlement registrations	Strain on scanning/upload bandwidth	Prioritised dedicated server allocation; implemented batch upload protocols
2	Duplicate File Numbers in legacy data	Risk of indexing conflicts	Deployed deduplication algorithm during blind scanning; manual QC for exceptions
3	Limited shelf space for physical file archival	Delay in jacketing/archiving phase	Requested allocation of new registry space (as noted in Status Report)
4	Hardware constraints in some units	Bottleneck in page-typing/QC	Phased hardware procurement plan submitted to ICT Directorate

7. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Approve dedicated network infrastructure for KLAES servers to support heavy file transfers for scan upload and page-typing workflows.
2. Fast-track procurement of additional hardware (scanners, workstations) for units operating below capacity to enable full go-live of all modules.
3. Allocate new registry shelving space to accommodate pending physical files for Registry 2 (Direct Allocation) and Registry 3 (Conversion) to prevent workflow disruption.
4. Conduct targeted capacity building for Deeds staff on advanced features of the Electronic Instrument Registration Module, including bulk upload, exception handling, and report generation.

5. Initiate stakeholder sensitisation with law firms, financial institutions, and surveyors on accessing the On-Premise and Online Legal Search portals to drive adoption and generate value-added revenue.

8. CONCLUSION

The First Quarter 2026 electronic instrument registration exercise demonstrates the transformative impact of the KLAES platform on land administration service delivery in Kano State. With continued investment in infrastructure, capacity, and process optimisation, the Ministry is well-positioned to achieve full digital transformation of land records management, enhancing transparency, efficiency, and revenue generation.
